Summer Springboard programs are not run by our campus partners. Universities and their affiliated departments are not responsible for the Summer Springboard program in any way.

Student Life

Students will be living at Simmons University in the heart of Boston under the tutelage of accomplished instructors from Harvard and MIT, amongst other high ranking Universities. With so many highly ranked educational institutes nestled among so much history, art and culture you will have a never ending list of to do's during your time here.

Lodging and Meals

Students live at Smith Hall and share air-conditioned suites with roommates and use an en-suite bathroom. Floors are gender-segregated and rooms contain an extra-long twin size bed, desks, drawers, mirror and a closet. Your Mentor will be living down the hall should you need anything.

Meals are eaten in Bartol Hall, just across the Quad from the student dormitory, or in local restaurants near campus. All dietary needs can be accommodated.
