2024 Dates

WASHINGTON

- Session 1: July 21 - August 02

Academic Program Overview

Foreign affairs will equip students with a broad perspective on international relations and global challenges. Students will be introduced to a range of career paths, be encouraged to engage more actively in discussions, and learn strong research and comprehension skills. Seattle is a great place to take this course as the city contributes to the foreign affairs agenda of the US due to its economic and cultural ties and its participation in global initiatives.
